SEL in ALL You Do!

Children need intentional instruction to learn social and emotional competencies to interact with others, foster meaningful learning and feel connected. Social Emotional Learning (SEL) helps children to seek help when they need it, manage their own emotions and problem solve in difficult situations. In this session, participants will become familiar with SEL concepts and explore ways to include SEL in all they do!

About CASE for Kids

CASE for Kids services improve program quality and equalize access to afterschool, summer and enrichment opportunities – because what happens between school and home matters. To learn more about CASE for Kids services, visit www.afterschoolzone.org

About the presenter

Mary Doyle Glover has worked in the afterschool field for more than 25 years. She has extensive experience in program development for arts and education organizations in the greater Houston area. Mary has been on staff at HCDE CASE for Kids for 12 years where her primary focus is helping afterschool providers improve and expand services. She has presented trainings on a variety of topics at local, regional, and national after-school conferences.
